SECTION-A

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below in your own words:

In England, Gandhiji, at first did not give his time entirely to his studies. Instead, he tried to copy fashionable English gentleman in every way. Like so many young men of his age he was attracted by what was new and foreign. He wasted a lot of money on buying smart English clothes he started taking lessons in dancing and in playing the violin. What a change from the shy boy on the ship, who would not talk to other passengers! After three months he suddenly realized how silly it was to waste his good brother's money on such things. After this he devoted all his time to serious study. From the very childhood, when Gandhiji found out that he was doing wrong, he at once stopped doing it.

Questions:

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below in your own words:

There is a public library in every town in Great Britain. There are branch libraries in most villages. Anyone can become a member, and it costs nothing to borrow books. Three books may be borrowed at a time but only two may be novels. if there are four persons in the family they can, between them, take home twelve books. These books can be kept for a fortnight. So there is no difficulty in providing the family with all the reading that is needed. If at the end of the fortnight, you have not finished reading a book, you may renew it for another fortnight. If the book you want is not there you may
