information on to the brain. The brain then has to decide what to do, and it sends orders to the muscles, of the arms, legs and so on, so that the ball is met and hit back where it ought to go. All, this must happen with very great speed, and only those who, have had a lot of practice at tennis can carry out this complicated chain of events successfully. For those who work with their brain most of the day, the practice of such skills is especially useful.

Questions:

(i) What do games and sports do?

(ii) What is the function of the eyes?

(iii) When do the muscles of the arms and legs react?

(iv) For whom is the practice of tennis especially useful?

2. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

The water of river Yamuna in Delhi has become lifeless. The river's water quality is most polluted and has received 'E' grade. This is the lowest grade which indicates the severity of pollution in water. Some fifty years ago, the water of the Yamuna was clear and clean. Many water plants such as weed, algae and shrubs grew in the water. These plants were also the main source of food for aquatic creatures. But what we find now are red worms, which live in the most unhygienic and polluted water.

Questions:

(i) How is the water of river Yamuna at present?

(ii) Why did it get 'E' grade?

(iii) What grew in the water when the Yamuna was clean?

(iv) What do we find now in its water?

OR

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Language is a wonderful gift given to man. No animal possess this gift, but they have their own way of expressing themselves. When a rabbit sees an enemy, it runs into the hole. Its tail, which is white, bobs up and down when it runs. The other rabbits see it, they run too. They know that there is a danger. Similarly, a bee dances and lets other bees know that it has found food. Similarly, a dog barks when a stranger comes near.

Then stood erect and spoke my thanks
And blessed his charity

Questions:

(i) How was the speaker feeling when a proud man heard him?

(ii) What did the proud man do?

(iii) What did the speaker do after his sorrow passed?

OR

Read the poem carefully and answer the questions that follow:

World you are beautifully drest
The wonderful air is over me,
And the wonderful wind is shaking the tree,
It walks on the water and whirls the mills,
And talks to itself on the tops of the hills.

Questions:

(i) Who is beautifully dressed?

(ii) What does the wind do?

(iii) What talks to itself on the tops of the hills?
